

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 8, 2004

WATCH ONLINE: V CORPS SERIES SPOTLIGHTS VETERANS OF RECENT CONFLICTS

HEIDELBERG, Germany —On November 11, 1918, World War I was declared over. In honor of that day, a national holiday -- Armistice Day -- was declared. In 1954, the holiday was changed from a day to mark the end of the first world war, to a day to honor the veterans of all wars. In recognition of Veterans Day, during its nightly newscasts this week AFN Atlantic will air a series profiling some veterans of American conflicts dating back to World War II.

The series will air on this week's AFN "Evening Newswatch" programs, which air from 6:30 – 7 p.m. nightly.

To watch the segments online, click on the links below:

World War II: Leland Crawford, 299th Combat Engineer Battalion

Vietnam: Morris Battle, 1st Squadron, 4th Cavalry

Operation Just Cause: Maj. Rebecca Freeze, 3rd Corps Support Command

Operation Iraqi Freedom: Staff Sgt. Aaron Owen, 16th Engineer Battalion

